

New Day, New Challenges (sub inject 1)

Good Morning Team(s)!

Our normal area of business has been flooded, but don't worry. They should have fixed soon (like Thursday). No worries, the business must go on!

We found a location for you all to work at, but you'll be sharing space so play nice with each other!

Sadly the location doesn't have the proper setup for internet and the like. But that's okay, I have faith in you (because regardless work will still come). I sent my assistant to give you all an ethernet cable, you should have a laptop. From there you can get internet! So you know...you can work (cause COVID killed days off sadly).

Best of luck! Keep an eye out on emails!

Thanks,

Thomas Hill, Middle Manager
